CONTEST:
THE GOLDEN SAND WATERFONT

About the First Prize | 52653

"A thoughtful and articulate proposal is presented, showing a keen awareness of local conditions. It offers a detailed analysis of the bridge's role in connecting communities, emphasizing practicality, community engagement, and environmental sustainability. The plan demonstrates a systematic approach to integrating ecological considerations while preserving the site's existing characteristics. It is supported by clear and detailed graphics, ensuring clarity in its presentation."

Sandra Baggerman - MVRDV

"This project fosters the integration of natural beauty and urban functionality, creating a space that not only serves the community but also enhances the environment. By blending ecological preservation with recreational and cultural spaces, it sets a benchmark for sustainable urban planning, offering a diverse array of activities that cater to all ages and interests while promoting environmental stewardship. The project's design encourages social cohesion, economic vitality, and a connection with nature, ensuring a legacy of sustainability and community well-being for future generations."

Daniela Silva - Ressano Garcia Arquitectos

About the Second Prize | 51883

"An intelligent public realm intervention, seamlessly integrated with a thoughtful architecture, adorned with captivating graphics and presentations."

Toufic Rifai - Lombardini22

About the Third Prize | 51458

"Realistic, main concept: renaturalization, sensitive and respectful with landscape intervention, very good graphic representation."

Anna Cabrera Hens - Barcelona City Council
